We are delighted today to be publishing a bumper summer edition of the IJGlobal Magazine – a virtual issue crammed full of awards celebrating the most glorious of developments from the last calendar year.

This year we have gone all-out on the awards front to give the market some much-needed cheer in an otherwise fairly grim world.

We have for your reading delight some 160 pages that are dominated by interviews from some of the most successful prize winners, write-ups on the company/deal winners and a few innovations to freshen things up.

New this year, we have introduced the Editor's Choice Awards where the leading journalists in the relevant regions choose a transaction that closed in the judging period that may (or may not) have won an award, but ticked the interesting box for that IJ staffer.

For example, the regional winners of the IJGlobal Editor's Choice Awards are:

- Wavemaster Horizon – Europe
- Prince George's County Schools – North America
- EnfraGen Refinance – Latin America
- Clifford Capital's restructure and ADB investment – Asia Pacific
- Umm al Quwain IWP – Middle East
- Atinkou CCGT – Africa

Beyond that, this year hosted a dedicated judging session for the Latin American company awards... an innovation that next year will be followed by an individual judging team tackling African submissions.

But that's enough teasers to have whetted your appetite.
