

IJGlobal Podcast – Infrastructure Finance in Asia and the Middle East with HSBC

Manju Dalal

31/10/2025

This latest IJGlobal Podcast sees the spotlight turn towards the lending environment for infrastructure with a primary focus on Asia and the Middle East.

IJGlobal Asia Pacific editor Manju Dalal talks to 2 HSBC bankers with decades of experience across Asia and the Middle East about the bank's plans to expand its infrastructure finance footprint, targeting the sectors and markets set to drive the next phase of growth through 2029.

Gregoire Bouzereau, head of infrastructure finance for Asia Pacific, and Justo Alejandro Algaba, head of infra finance for the Middle East, North Africa and Turkey, talk about how the bank is positioning itself amid a rapidly evolving landscape.

The conversation comes ahead of the IJGlobal Infrastructure Finance Forum in Singapore on 18–19 November at The Westin Singapore, followed by the Asia Pacific Awards celebrating the region's most outstanding transactions, investors and ESG initiatives.

This latest episode runs for a little more than 40 minutes.

This episode can be accessed on Spotify (embedded above) as well as through Apple Podcasts and on the Amazon service. It is also hosted across a slew of other platforms, open access on all of them.

With decades of deal-making experience between them, Gregoire and Justo share candid insights on how HSBC approaches infrastructure finance across 2 of the world's most dynamic regions.

Data centres, renewables, transportation, PPPs and new financing solutions feature prominently on their agenda – reflecting the bank's strategic focus and commitment to supporting sustainable growth.

Tune in to hear how HSBC continues to shape the future of infrastructure finance across Asia and the Middle East.
